Chapter - IV

Nomination and Payment to Nominee

14. (1) A subscriber shall, at the time of joining the Fund, send to the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana through the Head of office, a nomination in Form P.F. No. 2 (in triplicate) conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the payable amount of the Fund, in the event of his death.

Nomination for the right to receive the amount.

Provided that if, at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has a family, the nomination shall not be in favour of any person(s) other than the member(s) of his family;

Provided further that a nomination made by a Muhammadan subscriber in favour of his adopted child shall not be accepted, as adoption is not recognized in Muhammadan Law.

(2) If a subscriber nominates more than one person under sub-rule (1), he shall specify in the nomination the share payable to each of the nominee in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may become payable in the event of death of subscriber.

15. (1) A subscriber may at any time cancel or revise the nomination by sending a notice in writing to the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana through his Head of office, keeping in view the conditions laid down in rule 14 above. The subscriber shall, alongwith such notice or separately, send a fresh nomination, through his Head of office, in accordance with the provisions of this rule. If the subscriber fails to furnish a fresh nomination and the general provident fund deposit becomes payable as a result of death of the subscriber, the payment shall be made in accordance with the rules of the Fund as if no valid nomination subsists.

Cancellation or revision of nomination.

(2) Immediately on the death of a nominee in respect of whom no special provision has been made in the nomination or on the occurrence of any event by reason of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of rule 17, the subscriber shall send to the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana through his Head of office, a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with a fresh nomination made in accordance with the provision of this rule.

Note.— Nomination made while in service can also be revised even after retirement by a subscriber until the application for final payment is submitted by him.

16. A subscriber may, in respect of any specified nominee, provide in the nomination that in the event of death of nominee, the right conferred upon that nominee shall pass on to such other person(s) as may be specified in the nomination, provided that such other person(s), if the subscriber has any member(s) in his family, shall be such other member(s).

Specific nomination of other member(s) in the event of death of nominee.

17. A nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of a contingency specified therein: Provided that if at the time of making the nomination, the subscriber has—

Events when nomination becomes invalid.

- (i) no family; or
- (ii) only one member of the family,

he shall provide in the nomination that the right conferred upon the alternate nominee under rule 16 shall become invalid in the event of his subsequently acquiring family or other member(s) in his family, as the case may be.

18. Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given by a subscriber shall, to the extent that it is valid, have effect on the date on which it is received by the Head of office.

Date of effect of nomination.

19. A nominee facing trial for the murder of the subscriber may be denied payment till the decision of the court. If on the conclusion of the criminal proceedings, the person concerned is acquitted of the charge of murdering or abetting in the murder of the subscriber, his share shall be paid to him. If the nominee is convicted for the murder or abetting in the murder of the subscriber, he shall stand debarred from receiving his share which shall be payable to other nominees or eligible members of the family or legal heir(s) of the subscriber, as per provisions of these rules.

Criminal proceedings against nominee.

20. The payment of Fund money in accordance with the nomination earns a valid discharge for the Government but if any court of law decrees that payment shall be made to persons other than the nominee(s), before actual payment has been made to the nominee(s), the orders of the court shall be complied with.

Payment to person other than nominee.

Payment to a
succession
certificate.

21. If a subscriber dies having no family member and without any valid nomination then the payment shall be made to the claimant on production of succession certificate from the court of law.

Chapter - V

31. (1) In case a subscriber is found to have drawn from his GPF account an amount in excess of the amount standing to his credit on the date of the drawal, the overdrawn amount, irrespective of whether the over drawal occurred in the course of an advance or a withdrawal from his GPF account or final payment, the responsibility shall be fixed and action be taken against the erring officer/official(s) certifying excess amount in general provident fund subscription etc. The recovery of overdrawn amount shall be made as per following provisions:-

- (a) if the subscriber is in service, it shall be repaid by him with penal interest thereon in lump sum and in default, be ordered to be recovered in lump sum, from the pay bill of the subscriber. If the total amount to be recovered is more than half of the subscriber's pay, recoveries shall be made in monthly instalments not exceeding 1/3rd of his pay till the entire amount together with interest is recovered.
- (b) if final payment has been made on quitting service, the overdrawn amount along with penal interest shall be recovered from the pending dues of the subscriber, such as death-cum-retirement gratuity, commutation of pension, leave encashment, otherwise from the dearness relief payable on the monthly pension. If he is not a pensioner then recovery shall be effected through the Court of law, if necessary.

(2) The rate of penal interest to be charged on overdrawn amount shall be at the rate of 10% per annum over and above the normal rate of interest admissible on general provident fund amount for the relevant year(s). The interest realized on the overdrawn amount shall be credited to Government account, under distinct sub-head "Interest on over drawals from Fund" under the Head "0049-Interest Receipt of State Government-800-other Receipts."

Chapter - VII

Grant of Advance from GPF account

Purposes of advance from GPF account.

32. The subscriber shall be sanctioned an advance by the competent authority subject to the conditions laid down in rule 33 of an amount equal to six months' pay or fifty percent of credit in the account, whichever is less, for the purposes mentioned at Sr. No. (1) to (5) and six months of basic pay or fifty percent of credit in the Fund or actual cost of item(s), whichever is less, for the purposes mentioned at Sr. No. (6) below, namely:—

- (1) to pay expenses in connection with the illness, confinement or a disability, including travelling expenses of the subscriber and family member(s) or any person actually dependent on him;
- (2) to meet the cost of higher education including the travelling expenses of the subscriber and member of his family or any person actually dependent on him, where necessary, in the following cases:-
 - (a) for education outside India for academic, technical, professional or vocational courses above the High School stage;
 - (b) for diploma courses and degree courses of Graduation level or above in any field such as Medical, Engineering, Architectural, Agricultural, Art, Home Science, Commerce, BBA, MBA, etc. from the recognized institutions or institutions run by Government or Union Territory provided that the course of study is of above High School stage; and
 - (c) for attending coaching courses conducted by Government or any institute for entry into professional courses, administrative or defence services in Government of India or any State Government;
- (3)
 - (a) to pay obligatory expenses in connection with betrothal, funerals, birthday and Marriage anniversary or other ceremonies of the members of his family or any person actually dependent on him and religious ceremonies performed occasionally such as Jagran, Akhand Paath, Ramayan Paath, etc;
 - (b) to meet the expenses of marriage (including self marriage) of children or any dependent member(s) but not before attaining the age of 21 years in the case of male and 18 years in the case of female children or member(s). Necessary proof of age shall be made available by the subscriber while applying advance for this purpose;
- (4) to meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by or against the subscriber, any member of his family or any person actually dependent on him: Provided no advance shall be admissible if legal proceedings are instituted by him against the Government in any Court of law;
- (5) to meet the cost of the subscriber's defence where he engages a legal practitioner to defend himself in an enquiry in respect of any alleged official misconduct on his part;
- (6) to purchase house-hold items such as refrigerator, LCD, LED, air conditioner, washing machines, cooking range, geysers, solar energy generator set, invertors, laptop, cell phone, furniture etc.

Conditions to obtain advance from GPF account.

33. A subscriber may obtain advance from his GPF account for the purposes specified in rule 32 subject to following conditions:-

- (1) to avail any advance admissible under these rules, the subscriber shall have to submit his application to his Head of office in the Form P.F. No. 3;
- (2) Only one advance shall be admissible at a time for any of the purposes mentioned in rule 32;
- (3) Where the first advance has not been availed of to the extent of permissible limits, the second advance for any of the purposes shall also be admissible upto the difference between the amount of admissibility and sanction of first advance. Further advance shall not be admissible unless and until the repayment of previous advance(s), if any;

- (4) advance shall not be admissible simultaneously for the same purpose for which withdrawal from GPF account has been obtained;
- (5) advance shall also be admissible even after incurring of expenditure on any of the purposes specified in Rule 32, if the subscriber applies for the same within a reasonable period of two months;
- (6) advance shall also be admissible to a subscriber under suspension or on extraordinary leave. The admissibility of amount of advance shall be calculated on the basis of pay drawn immediately before suspension or extraordinary leave, as the case may be;
- (7) advance shall also be admissible to a subscriber on deputation/foreign service for which he has to submit his application to the competent authority of parent department;

34. The Fund is designed solely for the protection of a subscriber's family against his sudden death, or, if he survives until retirement, to provide him and the family with additional resources in old age. Anything, which interferes with a subscriber's normal accumulations, detracts from these purposes and tends to defeat the true object of the Fund. There is a danger that a subscriber may regard the Fund as an ordinary banking account, and this tendency may lead to leave the subscriber with a depleted account at the time when it ought to be most helpful to him or his family in his old age. Sanctioning authorities shall, therefore, to have no hesitation in resisting any attempt to use the Fund as a cheap loan account by the subscribers.

General principle for advance from GPF account.

35. (1) The competent authority for sanction of advance from GPF account for any of the purpose under rule 32, shall be the Head of office. However, in the case of Head of office and Head of Department, it shall be sanctioned by the Head of Department and Administrative Secretary respectively. These authorities of parent department shall also be competent to sanction any advance to a subscriber while on foreign service or deputation.

Authorities competent for sanction of advance and their responsibilities.

(2) Where the first advance has not been availed of to the extent of permissible limits, the second advance for any of the purposes may be granted by the same sanctioning authority to the extent of difference of amount of admissibility and sanction of first advance.

(3) The sanctioning authority shall carefully scrutinize the request(s) for advance(s) made by the subscriber. Even where ceremonial expenditure is by religious custom obligatory, its extent shall nevertheless be limited by the resources of the family, and no subscriber shall be enabled to enhance such expenditure on the strength of deposits in the Fund. An advance from the Fund shall legitimately be made for obligatory ceremonial expenditure where no other resources exist but not in order to raise such expenditure to a more pretentious scale.

(4) The sanctioning authority, while sanctioning an advance shall take into consideration the date of retirement of subscriber and fix the number of instalments, in such a manner that it is possible to recover the entire amount of the advance before six months of actual retirement. No advance shall be sanctioned in the remaining period of six months of retirement.

(5) The competent authority shall categorically mention the number of instalments in which the advance is to be recovered. It shall be the responsibility of the Head of office to recover the advanced amount as per sanction order.

(6) The advance shall be sanctioned in the Form PF-11 subject to the admissibility. A copy of sanction order shall be endorsed to the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana.

(7) The amount of advance shall be drawn from the Treasury/Sub-Treasury as per their jurisdiction and the same shall be disbursed to the subscriber. The Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana shall make necessary entries in this regard in the Account of subscriber as per procedure followed in his office.

36. The subscriber shall utilize the advance within one month and also submit the utilization certificate accordingly. In case of non-submission of utilization certificate or misutilisation of advance, action shall be taken as per provisions of in Rule 52.

Utilization certificate of advance advance.

37. (1) The advance shall be recovered from the subscriber in minimum twelve and maximum thirty-six monthly instalments provided it shall be fully recovered six months prior to the date of retirement of the subscriber. However, the subscriber may opt for recovery of advance in less than twelve instalments.

(2) Recovery shall commence from the salary of the month following the month of drawal of advance and the same shall be credited in the subscribers account. The subscriber may at his option repay more than one instalment in a month.

(3) Recovery shall not be made except with the subscriber's written consent while he is in receipt of subsistence allowance. However, the same may be recovered in lump sum from his arrears on his reinstatement, if he is paid full pay and allowances of the suspension period.

(4) The recovery shall not be made without the consent of the subscriber while on leave which carries leave salary less than full pay. However, the recoveries shall be made with the consent of the subscriber.

(5) If the second advance has been granted to a subscriber under sub-rule (3) of rule 33 infra, the same shall be treated separately for the purpose of recovery.

(2) The Head of office after obtaining the application for final payment shall forward the same to the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana within fifteen days indicating the recovery of advance due and also the withdrawal, if any, taken by the subscriber after the issue of the last statement of his GPF account.

(3) The Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana shall after verification with the ledger account, take necessary steps to authorize payment of the amount standing to the GPF account of subscriber, in regard to which there is no dispute or doubt, before fifteen days of the retirement on superannuation payable on first working day of the next month and within two months in other cases of quitting service. The balance, if any, shall also be released as soon as possible.

(4) A subscriber, dismissed or removed from service, whose appeal against his dismissal/ removal is pending in the Department, the balance in his GPF account shall not be authorised until final orders confirming the decision are passed on his appeal or attaining the age of superannuation, whichever is earlier.

(5) The Treasury Officer shall allow the payment only after receipt of authorization issued by the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana meant for Treasury Office.

Note.— In case a subscriber, who has been dismissed/removed from the service and is subsequently reinstated in the service shall repay any amount paid to him from the Fund alongwith interest thereon at the rate prescribed in rule 27. The amount so repaid shall be credited to his account in the Fund.

55. (i) In case of death of subscriber while in service, the amount standing to his GPF Account shall become payable to the member(s) of his family/ nominee(s).

Final payment in case of death or disappearance while in service.

(ii) In case of disappearance of a subscriber and when his whereabouts are not known, the amount standing to his GPF account shall become payable to the member(s) of his family/ nominee(s) after observing the following formalities:-

(a) the family must lodge a report with the concerned police station and obtain a report that the employee has not been traced after all efforts made by the police;

(b) an Indemnity bond, the specimen is at Annexure-III, shall be taken from the nominee/dependents of the employee that all payments shall be adjusted against the payments due to the subscriber in case he appears alive and claims for payment;

(c) the family/nominee(s) facing trial for the murder of the subscriber shall not be allowed any payment till the court's decision.

(iii) The application for this purpose in both the above cases shall be submitted by the claimant(s) in Form P.F. No. 10 (in duplicate) to the Head of office complete in all respects for onwards submission to the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana immediately for further necessary action.

(iv) For final payment of undisputed amount, an authority shall be issued by the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana within two months. The balance, if any, shall also be released as soon as possible, provided the application in prescribed form is submitted in time.

- Final payment when the subscriber left behind a family. 56. When the subscriber leaves a family and—
- (a) the nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 14 in favour of any person(s) also subsists, the amount standing to his GPF account or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee(s) in the proportion specified in the nomination;
 - (b) no such nomination in favour of a member(s) of the family of subscriber subsists, or if such nomination relates only to a part of the amount standing to his GPF account, the whole amount or the part thereof to which the nomination does not relate, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding any nomination purporting to be in favour of any person(s) other than a member(s) of his family, become payable to the members of his family in equal shares:

Provided that the widow(s) and the child(ren) of the deceased son(s) shall divide between them in equal parts only the share which that son(s) would have received, had he/they survived before the death of the subscriber;
 - (c) The payment in the case of minor(s) shall be made through legal guardian, if the minor has no natural guardian alive, the other pre-requisites/formalities as laid down in rule 60 shall be observed and authorization be issued accordingly.
- Final payment when the subscriber left behind no family. 57. When the subscriber leaves no family and the nomination made by him in accordance with the provisions of rule 14 in favour of any person(s) subsists, the amount standing to his GPF account or the part thereof to which the nomination relates, shall become payable to his nominee(s) in the proportion specified in the nomination. In case, if a subscriber dies having no family member and valid nomination then the payment shall be made to the claimant(s) on production of succession certificate from the Court of law.
- Posthumous child is a family member for final payment. 58. Subscriber's posthumous child is a member of his family at the time of his death. If the child born alive, shall be treated in the same way as surviving child born before the subscriber's death. If the existence of a foetus at the time of death of a subscriber is brought to the notice of the Head of office after his death, the amount admissible under these rules to the child in the event of its being born alive shall be retained and the balance be distributed in the normal way. If the child is born alive, payment of the retained amount shall be made as in the case of minor child; but if no child is born, the retained amount shall be distributed among the family in accordance with the ordinary rules.
- Manner of payment to a lunatic. 59. If the person to whom any amount, under these rules, is payable is a lunatic, for whose estate a Manager has been appointed in this behalf under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 (Act IV of 1912), the payment shall be made to such Manager and not to the lunatic:

Provided that, where no Manager has been appointed and the person to whom the sum is payable is certified by a Magistrate to be a lunatic, the payment shall, under the orders of the Collector, be made in terms of sub-section (1) of section 95 of the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912 (Act-IV of 1912), to the person having charge of such lunatic and the Principal Accountant General (A&E), Haryana shall pay only the amount which he thinks fit to the person having charge of the lunatic, if any, or such part thereof, shall be paid to him for maintenance of lunatic.
- Manner of payment to a guardian. 60. The payment in the case of minor(s) shall be made through legal guardian, if the minor has no natural guardian alive then indemnity bond as at Annexure-IV shall be obtained.
- Final payment in India only 61. Final payment admissible under these rules shall, in all circumstances, be made in India only. The person(s) to whom the amount is payable shall make his/their own arrangements to receive the same in India.
- No recovery from GPF account without the consent of subscriber. 62. The amount at credit of subscriber to GPF account is protected from attachment by a Court of law under section 3 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925 (Central Act 19 of 1925). Claims by Government are not, therefore, compulsory and without the subscriber's consent recoverable from the balance at his credit.

- (g) “Railway Provident Fund” means a Provident Fund constituted by the authority of a Railway administration for any class or classes of its employees.

3. Protection of compulsory deposit.—

- (1) A compulsory deposit in any Government or Railway Provident Fund shall not in any way be capable of being assigned or charged and shall not be liable to attachment under any decree or order of any Civil, Revenue or Criminal Court in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the subscriber or depositor, and neither the official Assignee nor any receiver appointed under the Provincial Insolvency Act, 1920 (5 of 1920), shall be entitled to, or have any claim on any such compulsory deposit.
- (2) Any sum standing to the credit of any subscriber to, or depositor in, any such Fund at the time of his decease and payable under the rules of the Fund to any dependent of the subscriber or depositor, or to such person as may be authorized by law to receive payment on his behalf, shall, subject to any deduction authorized by this Act and, save where the dependent is the widow or child of the subscriber or depositor, subject also to the rights of an assignee under an assignment made before the commencement of this Act, vest in the dependent, and shall, subject as aforesaid, be free from any debt or other liability incurred by the deceased or incurred by the dependent before the death of the subscriber or depositor.

4. Provisions regarding repayment.—

- (1) When under the rules of any Government or Railway Provident Fund the sum standing to the credit of any subscriber or depositor, or the balance thereof after the making of any deduction authorized by this Act, has become payable, the officer whose duty it is to make the payment shall pay the sum or balance, as the case may be, to the subscriber or depositor, or, if he is dead, shall –
 - (a) if the sum or balance, or any part thereof, vests in a dependent under the provisions of section 3, pay the same to the dependent or to such person as may be authorized by law to receive payment on his behalf; or
 - (b) if the whole sum or balance, as the case may be, does not exceed five thousand rupees, pay the same, or any part thereof, which is not payable under clause (a) to any person nominated to receive it under the rules of the Fund, or, if no person is so nominated, to any person appearing to him to be otherwise entitled to receive it; or
 - (c) in the case of any sum or balance, or any part thereof, which is not payable to any person under clause (a) or clause (b) pay the same, –
 - (i) to any person nominated to receive it under the rules of the Fund, on production by such person of probate or letters of administration evidencing the grant to him of administration to the estate of the deceased or a certificate granted under the Succession Certificate Act, 1889 (VII of 1889), or under the Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827, entitling the holder thereof to receive payment of such sum, balance or part, or
 - (ii) where no person is so nominated, to any person who produces such probate, letters or certificates:

Provided that, where the whole or any part of any sum standing to the credit of the subscriber or depositor has been assigned to any other person before the commencement of this Act, and notice in writing, of the assignment has been received by the officer from the assignee, the officer shall, after making any deduction authorized by this Act, and any payment due under clause (a) to or on behalf of the widow or children of the subscriber or depositor—

 - (i) if the subscriber or depositor or, if he is dead, the person to whom in the absence of any valid assignment the sum or balance would be payable under this sub-section gives his consent in writing, pay the sum or part of the balance thereof, as the case may be, to the assignee, or –
 - (ii) if such consent is not forthcoming, withhold payment of the sum, part of balance, as the case may be, pending a decision of a competent Civil Court as to the person entitled to receive it.
- (2) The making of any payment authorized by sub-section (I) shall be a full discharge to the Government or the Railway administration, as the case may be, from all liability in respect of so much of the sum standing to the credit of the subscriber or depositors as is equivalent to the amount so paid.

5. Rights of nominees.—

- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, by a subscriber to, or depositor in, a Government or Railway Provident Fund of the sum standing to his credit in the Fund, or of any part thereof, where any nomination, duly made in accordance with the rules of the Fund, purports to confer upon any person the right to receive the whole or any part of such sum on the death of the subscriber or depositor occurring before the sum has become payable or before the sum, having become payable, has been paid, the said person shall, on the death as aforesaid of the subscriber or depositor, become entitled, to the exclusion of all other persons, to receive such sum or part thereof, as the case may be, unless—
 - (a) such nomination is at any time varied by another nomination made in like manner or expressly cancelled by notice given in the manner and to the authority prescribed by those rules, or
 - (b) such nomination at any time becomes invalid by reason of the happening of some contingency specified therein and if said person predeceases the subscriber or depositor, the nomination shall, so far as it relates to the right conferred upon the said person, become void and of no effect:

Provided that where provision has been duly made in the nomination in accordance with the rules of the Fund, conferring upon some other person such right instead of the person deceased, such right shall, upon the decease as aforesaid of the said person, pass to such other person.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Succession Act, 1925 or the Bombay Regulation VIII of 1827, any person, who becomes entitled as aforesaid, may be granted a certificate under that Act or that Regulation, as the case may be, entitling him to receive payment of such sum or part, and such certificate shall not be deemed to be invalidated or superseded by any grant to any other person of probate or letters of administration to the estate of the deceased.
- (3) The provisions of this section as amended by sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Provident Funds (Amendment) Act, 1946 also shall apply to all such nominations made before the date of the commencement of that Act:

Provided that the provisions of this section as so amended shall not operate to affect any case, in which before the said date any sum has been paid, or has under the rules of the Fund become payable in pursuance of any nomination duly made in accordance with those rules.

6. Power to make deductions.— When the sum standing to the credit of any subscriber or depositor in any Government or Railway Provident Fund which is a Contributory Provident Fund becomes payable, there may, if the authority specified in this behalf in the rules of the Fund so directs, be deducted therefrom and to Government or the Railway administration, as the case may be—

- (a) any amount due under a liability incurred by the subscriber or depositor to Government or the Railway administration, but not exceeding in any case the total amount of any contributions credited to the account of the subscriber or depositor and of any interest or increment which has accrued on such contributions; or
- (b) where the subscriber or depositor has been dismissed from his employment for any reasons specified in this behalf in the rules of the Funds, or where he has resigned such employment within five years of the commencement thereof, the whole or any part of the amount of any such contributions, interest and increment.

6-A. Withholding or recovery of Government Contributions in case of Central Government Officers taking up, without prior permission, commercial employment within two years of their retirement.—

- (1) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires,—
 - (a) “Central Government Officers” means a subscriber to, or depositor in, a Contributory Fund constituted by the Central Government, who, immediately before his retirement, is a member of a Central Service Class I, but does not include an officer appointed under a contract of service for a specified term.
 - (b) “Commercial employment” means employment in any capacity (including that of an agent) under any company, co-operative society, firm or individual engaged in trading, commercial, industrial, financial or professional business and includes also—
 - (i) a directorship of a company;
 - (ii) the holding of any office, whether elective or otherwise, such as that of president, chairman, manager, secretary, treasurer, by whatever name called in a co-operative society; and
 - (iii) the setting up of practice, either independently or as partner of a firm, as adviser or consultant in matters in respect of which the Central Government Officer,—
 - (A) has no professional qualifications and the matters in respect of which the practice is to be set up or is carried on are relatable to his official knowledge or experience, or
 - (B) has professional qualification, but the matters in respect of which such practice is to be set up are such as are likely to give his clients an unfair advantage by reason of the posts held by him under the Central Government, or
 - (C) has to undertake work involving liaison or contract with the offices or officers of Central Government, but does not include employment in or under a corporation or company wholly or substantially owned or controlled by Government or employment in or under a body controlled or financed wholly or substantially by Government;

- (c) "Government contributions" means contributions made after the commencement of the Provident Funds (Amendment) Act, 1975, in respect of any period after such commencement, by the Central Government or by a State Government or by a local authority within the meaning of the Local Authorities Loans Act, 1914;
 - (d) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made by the Central Government by notification in the Official Gazette.
- (2) No Central Government officer shall have any right to the Government contributions made to his credit in a Contributory Provident Fund in any case where he takes up commercial employment at any time before the expiry of two years from the date of his retirement without the prior permission of the Central Government.

EXPLANATION 1.— For the purposes of this sub-section and sub-section (7), "date of retirement" in relation to a Central Government officer re-employed after retirement without any break either in the same or any other class I post under the Central Government or any other equivalent post under a State Government, shall mean the date on which such Central Government Officer finally ceases to be re-employed in Government service.

EXPLANATION 2.— A Central Government officer permitted by the Central Government to take up a particular commercial employment during his leave preparatory to retirement shall be deemed, for the purposes of this sub-section, to have obtained prior permission of the Central Government for his continuance in such employment after retirement.

- (3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (4), the Central Government may, by order in writing, on an application made in the prescribed form by a Central Government officer, grant subject to such conditions, if any, as it may deem necessary, permission, or refuse, for reasons to be recorded in the order, permission, to such officer to take up the commercial employment specified in the application.
- (4) In granting or refusing permission under this section to a Central Government officer for taking up any commercial employment, the Central Government shall have regard to the following factors, namely:-
 - (a) the nature of the employment proposed to be taken up and the antecedents of the employer;
 - (b) whether his duties in the employment which he proposes to make up might be such as to bring him into conflict with Government;
 - (c) whether the officer while in service had any such dealing with the employer under whom he proposes to seek employment as might afford a reasonable basis for the suspicion that such officer had shown favour to such employer;
 - (d) any other relevant factors which may be prescribed.
- (5) Where within a period of sixty days of the date of receipt of an application under sub-section (3), the Central Government does not refuse to grant the permission applied for or does not communicate the refusal to the applicant, the Central Government shall be deemed to have granted the permission applied for.
- (6) Where the Central Government grants the permission applied, for subject to any conditions or refuses such permission, the applicant may, within thirty days of the receipt of the orders of the Central Government to that effect, make a representation against any such condition or refusal and the Central Government may make such orders thereon as it deems fit;

Provided that no order other than an order cancelling such condition or granting such permission without any conditions shall be made under this sub-section without giving the person making the representation an opportunity to show cause against the order proposed to be made.

- (7) If any Central Government officer takes up any commercial employment at any time before the expiry of two years from the date of his retirement without the prior permission of the Central Government or commits a breach of any condition subject to which permission to take up any commercial employment has been granted to him under this section, it shall be competent for the Central Government to declare by order in writing and for reasons to be recorded therein that he shall not be entitled to such part of the Government contributions made in relation to such officer as may be specified in the order and if he has received payment thereof, to direct that he shall refund to the Central Government an amount equivalent to such part of the Government contributions:

Provided that no such order shall be made without giving the officer concerned an opportunity of showing cause against such declaration or direction:

Provided further that in making any order under this sub-section, the Central Government shall have regard to the following factors, namely:

- (i) the financial circumstances of the officer concerned;
 - (ii) the nature of, and the emoluments from, the commercial employment taken up by the officer concerned;
 - (iii) such other relevant factors as may be prescribed.
- (8) Any amount required to be refunded by an order under sub-section (7) may, if it is not refunded within the prescribed period, be recovered as arrears of land revenue.
 - (9) Every order passed by the Central Government under this section shall be communicated to the officer concerned.
 - (10) The provisions of this section shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other provision of this Act or the rules applicable to any contributory provident fund.
 - (11) Every rule made by the Central Government under this section shall be laid, as soon as may be after it is made, before each House of Parliament, while it is in session, for a total period of thirty days which may be comprised in one session or in two or more successive sessions, and if, before the expiry of the session immediately following the session, or the successive sessions aforesaid, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or both Houses agree that the rule should not be made, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be; so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.

7. Protection for acts done in good faith.— No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person in respect of anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

8. Power to apply the Act to the Provident Fund.—

- (1) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the provisions of this Act (except section 6-A) shall apply to any Provident Fund established for the benefit of its employees by any local authority within the meaning of the Local Authority Loans Act, 1914, and on the making of such declarations, this Act shall apply accordingly, as if such Provident Fund were a Government Provident Fund and such local authority were the Government.
- (2) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that the provisions of this Act (except section 6-A) shall apply to any Provident Fund established for the benefit of the employees of any of the institutions specified in the Schedule, or of any group of such institutions and, on the making of such declaration, this Act shall apply accordingly, as if such Provident Fund were a Government Provident Fund and the authority having custody of the Fund were the Government:
Provided that section 6 shall apply as if the authority making the contributions referred to in that section were the Government.
- (3) The appropriate Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, add to the Schedule the name of any public institution it may deem fit, and any such addition shall take effect as if it had been made by this Act.
- (4) In this section, “the appropriate Government” means -
 - (a) in relation to a cantonment authority, a port authority for a major port, and any institution which, or the objects of which, appear to the Central Government to fall within List I in the Seventh Schedule to the Constitution, the Central Government; and
 - (b) in other cases, the State Government.

EXPLANATION.— “The State Government” in relation to an institution registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (XXI of 1860) means the State Government of the State in which the Society is registered.

9. Savings as to estates of soldiers.— Nothing in section 4 or section 5 shall apply to money belonging to any estate for the purpose of the administration of which the Regimental Debts Act, 1893, applies.

10. Repeals.— [Repealed by the Repealing Act, 1927(12 of 1927), S.2 and Sch.]
